Bernardi has been selling and servicing automobiles for over 40 years. As a result, Bernardi has developed a unique sense of responsibility for treating its sales and service customers in a manner that exceeds expectations such that they believe in the "Bernardi For Now ... Bernardi For Life" slogan. Our reputation for Honesty, Integrity, Professionalism, and Customer Satisfaction has become the benchmark for automotive dealers across the country.

Our Sales Department has one purpose: to exceed your expectations - from test drive to delivery. Our friendly, knowledgeable Sales Representatives are here to provide you with the information you need to make an educated buying decision.

Our certified Bernardi Service technicians work in a modern facility with the most up-to-date diagnostic and repair equipment available. Bernardi Technicians regularly attend factory training courses that prepare them for any and all situations that your vehicle may experience. Bernardi Service technicians use only Genuine Parts so you can feel confident the job will be done right the first time. Our Service Technicians take pride in providing superior service to customers from all over New England.
