ADDITIONAL ELIGIBLE EXPENSES FOR FORGIVENESS - DEFINED

The Act makes the following additional expenses of a borrower allowable and forgivable uses for PPP funds:

- Group insurance payments. Costs related to the continuation of group health care, life, disability, vision, or dental benefits during periods of paid sick, medical, or family leave, and group health care, life, disability, vision, or dental insurance premiums.
- Covered operations expenditures. Includes the payment for any software, cloud computing, and other human resources and accounting needs.
- Covered property damage costs. Costs related to property damage due to public disturbances that occurred during 2020 that are not covered by insurance.
- Covered supplier costs. Expenditures to a supplier pursuant to a contract, purchase order, or order for goods in effect prior to taking out the loan that were essential to the recipient's operations at the time at which the expenditure was made. Supplier costs of perishable goods can be made before or during the life of the loan.
- Covered worker protection expenditure. Personal protective equipment and adaptive investments to help a loan recipient comply with federal health and safety guidelines or any equivalent state and local guidance related to COVID-19 during the period between March 1, 2020, and the end of the national emergency declaration.

First Draw PPP Loans

- Maximum of $10 million or 2.5 times average monthly payroll costs (only include compensation up to $100,000 on an annual basis)
- Group insurance costs are now considered eligible payroll costs
- Reference period for calculating average monthly payroll costs for 2020 originated loans is calendar year 2019 or the twelve-month period prior to when the loan is made. 2021 originated loans can also elect to use the precise 1-year period before the date on which the loan is made to calculate payroll costs, instead of calendar year 2019 or 2020.
- Seasonal businesses may use any 12 week period between February 15, 2019 and February 15, 2020 as the calculation period for average monthly payroll costs.

Second Draw PPP Loans

- Maximum of $2 million or 2.5 times average monthly payroll costs (only include compensation up to $100,000 on an annual basis), except for NAICS Code 72 Companies, which can be 3.5 times the average monthly payroll costs.
- Reference period for calculating average monthly payroll costs is calendar year 2019, calendar year 2020 or the twelve-month period prior to when the loan is made.
- Seasonal Companies can elect the same reference period as first draw loans
- In order to be eligible, the following must apply
 - Eligible entities must be businesses, certain nonprofit organizations, housing cooperatives, veterans' organizations, tribal businesses, self-employed individuals, sole proprietors, independent contractors, and small agricultural cooperatives. Certain other restrictions for publicly traded companies, lobbying groups and entities affiliated with the People's Republic of China
 - Employ not more than 300 employees. The SBA affiliation rules apply in determining the number of employees
 - Have used or will use the full amount of their first PPP loan;
 - Demonstrate at least a 25% reduction in gross receipts in the first, second, or third quarter of 2020 relative to the same quarter in 2019
